

ISDS Iron-person Triathlon (Juniors)

7th - 9th July, 2023

There are three parts to the ISDS Iron-person triathlon administered one after another, spanning across three hours

Event 1: Knowledge Based Quiz Competition

Essentials

Contents

Format

- Participants have to attempt a Quiz while they are logged onto a zoom call with videos on
- Participants will have a total duration of 60 minutes to complete the Quiz
- The Quiz will likely contain MCQ, as well as subjective, longer answer questions
- Participants' Quiz score will contribute to ~30% of their overall score in the Triathlon

Tech requirements

- A working internet connection that can support an online video call
 - Web browser to access the quiz
 - Zoom application
-

Event 2: Speech Delivery Competition

Essentials	Contents
Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Participants will be given 3 topics, they can speak for or against any of the given topics• Participants will be given 35 minutes of preparation time to prepare their speech with internet access after topics are released to them while on Zoom video• In the next 10 minutes, participants drop off the call, and deliver a 4-minute speech over a recorded Zoom video• In the final 15 minutes, participants rejoin the Zoom call, uploading their speech on Youtube (as an unlisted video) and submit its link into a form given to them• Participants' Speech Delivery score will contribute to ~40% of their overall score in the Triathlon
Tech requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A working internet connection that can support an online video call• Youtube to upload the speech video• Zoom application

Event 3: Written Assessment Competition

Essentials	Contents
Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Participants will be given a long form article• Participants will be expected to answer a number of questions based on the contents of the article on a form circulated on the Zoom call• Questions will expect critical analysis, test writing, and argumentative skill• Throughout this process, participants need to be on the Zoom call• Participants' Written Assessment score will contribute to ~30% of their overall score in the Triathlon
Tech requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A working internet connection that can support an online video call• Web browser to access the form• Zoom application